

W&D Racing Team confirms full-season GT4 European Series entry

🕒 2 February 2021

W&D Racing Team has confirmed a full-season GT4 European Series campaign, with Paolo Meloni and Massimiliano Tresoldi set to race in the entire six-round championship with a BMW M4 GT4.

Meloni and Tresoldi shared the cockpit of the BMW M4 GT4 in 2018 and 2019, before going separate ways ahead of the 2020 season. The team from San Marino competed in the series at Imola and Misano last year, before shifting its attention to the Italian GT Sprint Championship.

This season, Meloni and Tresoldi are back together and aim to return to the podium in the Am Cup of the series. The GT4 European Series is set to get underway at Monza, on the third weekend of April.
